

with the current Indiana law on telephone privacy, We are enjoying peace and quiet at last! We used to receive ten to fifteen calls from solicitors a day. Now, I receive none. I can't imagine going back to the way it was, the unwanted calls always came at inconvenient times, such as meal times and when you were trying to get ready for work.